Tribal Employment Rights Ordinance (TERO) Acknowledgement

This Project will be constructed on land over which the Mandan Hidatsa and Arikara Nation (“Three Affiliated Tribes - MHA Nation”) has jurisdiction. As a result, Contractor and Subcontractor are subject to the laws and regulations of the Three Affiliated Tribes – MHA Nation. Contractor and Subcontractor acknowledge the Tribal Employment Rights Ordinance (TERO) Regulations of the Three Affiliated Tribes - MHA Nation, which requires Indian preference in contracting, subcontracting, and employment to Indians and Indian-owned firms by all contract awarding entities operating within the exterior boundaries of the lands over which the Mandan Hidatsa and Arikara Nation (“MHA Nation”) has jurisdiction.

- Yes, I have read and will comply with TERO Regulations, and my bid includes the cost for compliance with the regulations and required licensing.

Subcontractors shall agree not to withdraw bids for a period of sixty (60) days after date of opening of bids.

In submitting this bid, it is understood that McGough and Owner reserves the right to reject any or all bids, to waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.
